

FAME Policy on Suspected Misconduct, Dishonesty, Fraud, And Whistle-blower Protection

If any person knows of or has a suspicion about misconduct, dishonesty or fraud, the Executive Director should be contacted. If the alleged wrongdoing concerns the Executive Director, then the Chairman of the Board or other FAME Board Member should be notified instead.

If the Executive Director, Chairman or other Board Member receives information about misconduct, dishonesty or fraud, they shall inform the Board, which shall determine the procedure for investigating all credible allegations.

At all times, the privacy and reputation of individuals involved will be respected. There will no punishment or other retaliation for the reporting of conduct under this policy. If the person providing the information requests anonymity, this request will be respected to the extent that doing so does not impede any investigation.
